Senator Talks on Conspiracy

Washington (AP) — Sen. Edward Brooke, R-Mass., said today that he believes a conspiracy exists in the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. He said he has received information from a source that a group of men, including a former member of the Central Intelligence Agency, were involved in the plot.

Brooke, who is a member of the Senate Select Committee on Assassinations, said he has been told that the group was organized in the late 1950s and early 1960s. He said the group was active in the South and was involved in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan and other white supremacist groups.

Brooke said he has been told that the group was active in the assassination of Dr. King. He said he has been told that the group was active in the assassination of Dr. King and that it was active in the assassination of Dr. King.
