

New JFK Probe Gets Sen. Long's Backing

DALLAS (AP)—Sen. James H. Long, D-Texas, today said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Long said he has some doubts about the Warren Commission report, which concluded that some unidentified assassin or assassins were responsible for the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Long said he has decided to back a new probe into the assassination of President Kennedy.

JIM GARRISON
Rondelet, La., lawyer

anyone else was involved in Washington yesterday.

Sen. Thomas C. Dodd (D-Conn.) urged the Warren Commission to investigate.

Garrison has said he has no intention of turning over his information to state or federal officials.