Dear Mr. Macdonald;

Harold Weisberg would like to thank you for your kind words and interest in his work. He regrets to inform you that due to his age and failing health, he is unable to assist you in your quest for work. He wishes you the best, both in college and your job pursuit.

Sincerely,

Caitlin Mossburg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I've been a big admirer of yours ever since I first saw you on "The Men Who Killed Kennedy" when I was about 14. Now I'm almost 19 and I haven't forgotten anything you said from the program. I've been seriously studying the assassination for probably 6 years and I think your writings and comments are by far the most insightful. Lately, I've been looking for a job after finishing my first year of college, I need money. I am interested to know if you can help me in anyway get a job related to your work as an intelligence analyst or anything else you are associated with. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
