Dear Mrs. McLaughlin,

Thanks for your letter of the 23rd and the enclosed leaflet.

I have not read "Room 3603" by Hyde, but I think I heard of it several years ago.

Dulles was not the first head of the CIA.

They are one and the same Fensterwald.

I agree with your opinion in the Hiss case. His conviction, by the way, was not for espionage but was for perjury.

It is kind of you to offer your research, but my present time requirements leave no time for it. I am deeply engaged in attempting to write books I have already researched.

Most of my work has been on the JFK assassination. It remains at the center of my interest, if I do find The Watergate fascinating and indicative of the most serious danger our society has faced.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Mr. Harold Weisberg,
Frederick, Maryland.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I have a copy of your book, "Frameup". While I have not read it in its entirety, I have skimmed through and picked up some interesting facts.

I never felt that James Earl Ray killed Martin Luther King. Neither did I think Lee Harvey Oswald killed President Kennedy. I think both were "decoys" or stand-ins to distract from the real culprit.

Have you ever read, "Room 3603" by H. Montgomery Hyde? This appears to be identical to the intrigue of the Watergate Affair.

Out of the intrigues of "Room 3603" evolved the C. I. A. Allen Dulles who became the first head of C. I. A., has been in government circles since 1917, regardless of the party in power, just as J. Edgar Hoover was director of the FBI no matter the party.

Around May, 1962 there was some publicity on the American Establishment with reference to the British Establishment. There is definitely a plot to destroy the American System. I am sure The Establishment and a counter network, which I call the NEW 'non' Establishment is behind this latest "Intrigue", the Watergate Affair. Enclosed is a short article expressing my views.

Would you be interested in some of ^{my} research?

I listened to the Senate Hearings this morning and heard the name Bernard Fensterwald injected into the Hearings. You have referred to him in your book, "Frameup". I am sure it was Bernard Fensterwald. Ellsberg, the key figure in the Penatagon Papers has declared there is a deep, dark conspiracy. It would be well if this "cancer" could be investigated and exposed.

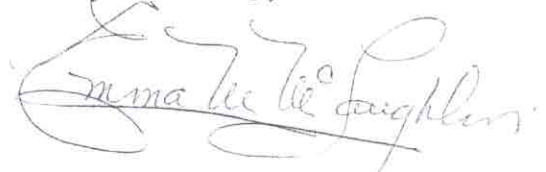

This note is being sent to the Postmaster asking him to supply your address. I do hope you receive it.

I do not believe Hiss was responsible for the crime he was tried and convicted for. I think he was framed but have no proof to back up my opinion. I do believe there was a network involved in his conviction as a spy.

I do hope you will be interested in my documentation.

Very sincerely,

When Richard H. Rovere's article, "Notes on the Establishment in America" appeared in the May, 1962 ESQUIRE, many hailed the exposé of the networks of subversion to change the American system, established on the Natural Law-Moral Order to "a new social order"-Naturalism, but few realized that Rovere was propagandizing and promoting a NEW, or as he called it, a "non" Establishment. This short outline will highlight only the barest details of these two networks.

In his article, Rovere mentioned Gifford Pinchot, Nicholas Murray Butler, Charles Evans Hughes, Walter Lippmann, Reinhold Niebuhr and Philip L. Graham involved in THE ESTABLISHMENT. This is correct, for as far back as the early 1900's, Butler, Pinchot and Lippmann were involved in the networks of subversion. Both Butler and Pinchot were members of the RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, (REA), which should be called RADICAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION. It was through this apparatus that nearly every large college, university, divinity school or seminary was used to indoctrinate the students with an ideology alien to Americanism. Mary E. Woolley and Harry F. Ward, two well known frontiers, and John Dewey and William Heard Kilpatrick were affiliated with REA from its inception. Walter Lippmann was involved in the Intercollegiate Socialist Society, later the League for Industrial Democracy (LID) which carried the taint of Fabianism into nearly all the major colleges. This dual pattern of subversion in our society is evident in the networks and apparatuses. One might be slightly left and the other far left, but both carry the tainted ideologies and create a dual or parallel transmission belt line.

Rovere exposed the part the COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS (CFR) plays in THE ESTABLISHMENT but is mute and blind to the parallel or dual network THE COMMITTEE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT (CED) which is by far more widespread and equally destructive to the American system as the CFR.

The NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION (NEA) is one of prime motivators in THE ESTABLISHMENT. Other organizations involved include the Int'l Sunday School Association, The Chautauqua, the Foundations, the CHURCH PEACE UNION, (CPU), -now called the COUNCIL OF RELIGION AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, the INT'L COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, (TICORE), "parent" of the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES, NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHRISTIANS AND JEWS, (NCCJ), NATIONAL RELIGION AND LABOR FOUNDATION, (NRLF), AMERICAN ACADEMY OF ARTS AND LETTERS, (AAAL), the NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF ARTS AND LETTERS (NIAL), INSTITUTE OF INT'L EDUCATION, (IIE); FOUNDATION FOR RELIGIOUS ACTION IN THE SOCIAL AND CIVIL ORDER (FRASCO) and the WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCES. 1313, exposed by many patriots is a "wheel" in the network. NATIONAL MUNICIPAL LEAGUE, (NML) is an affiliate of The Establishment. Rovere named a list as "non" Establishment and a few of these have been included in this scant documentation.

Among those named by Rovere as ESTABLISHMENT

NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER, NEA, 1885; Life director, NEA; founded and first president of the school which became TEACHERS COLLEGE of COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY; helped to found the CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INT'L PEACE. Member of REA Council and among the vice presidents of REA when it was organized, 1903; One of the founders of IIE; AAAL, president, 1934; Pres. American Auxiliary, INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE ON MORAL EDUCATION; COMMITTEE OF 10, COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD.
