Dear Mr. Macmillan,

Enclosed is the information you requested. If you order any books, if it is at all possible, remit in US funds. We live in the country and it requires two banks and two bank charges otherwise.

And because air shipment is so costly, we ship by surface mail, which takes a little time.

Unless as a pilot you have an address in this country where the books would be held for you

Your father has five years on me and is apparently in better health, thus my typing, which I hope you'll excuse.

But may I suggest to him that in addition to that golfing, he include daily walking?

I did not bother to read Hugh McDonald's second supposedly assassination book. His first was a cruel fraud, in which he defamed a dead friend, <sup>Harold Himley,</sup> There is not a word of fact in it as it ~~is~~ relates to the assassination.

He was a gifted and uninhibited con man and as unabashed liar as I ever met. And I did meet him and on the proposal for his book. Before he had it ghosted. I was asked by a prospective publisher for an opinion on the long summary he had submitted. Before I was finished I had copies of two earlier summaries and they differed radically.

In that role I suggested to him that people would find it hard to believe that his "Saul" lingered in a lady's washroom for an hour that included lunch hour. He eliminated that!

But he made a lot of money on it!

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr Weisberg,

I am an Australian pilot living in Singapore. November 22 1963 marked my final day at high school and the assassination dominated news and television even "downunder" at the time. Subsequent events (or lack thereof) have always held more than a passing interest for me.

I am unable to explain fully to you my satisfaction at reading your recent publication, "CASE OPEN." Your exposure of Posner's claims brought great relief.

I should be very grateful if you were to send a price list (including postage) for "WHITEWASH II, PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH," and "POST MORTEM."

By the way, I'd be very interested to hear of your opinion of Hugh McDonald's tale in his two books on the subject.

Thank you again for "CASE OPEN."

Yours sincerely,

Peter Macmillan

** I usually pass on books re the assassination to my father in Australia as, also being an octogenarian (86), he finds that two rounds of golf per week are now sufficient exercise and greatly enjoys reading about the on going saga of US government "non comment!"
