

Dear Mr & Mrs Whiting,

I apologize for not writing sooner and thanking you for letting my car and I impose on you. When I got back to my office work was piled all over my desk. I do the returns as part of running a CPA firm and now in the time everyone wants everything yesterday. I want you to know we considered the visit to your home a once in a lifetime opportunity. We both enjoyed the chance to discuss the conversations with someone who has the knowledge that you have. It was very educational for both of us and we learned a lot in the short time we were with you.

We can't thank you enough for allowing your valuable time and knowledge with us. I hope you are both getting along well.

Sincerely,
Kurt & Brett Merrill

We both hope to visit the Aukland, New Zealand, and say hello to you all some future date.
