Dear Mr. McKeever,

Most of the help I can give you is in my book FRANK-UP. You do not say whether you have it. If you don't and can't get it there, I have bought copies and add the cost of insured mail, making the total cost $10<sup>4</sup>/<sub>50</sub>.

The cheapest way to get the transcript is to get Clay Blair's ugly book. The differences between it and the typescript are minor.

There were other court proceedings of which I have transcripts, prior to the trial, but I can't let them away from here.

I am not a lawyer, but thanks for the complement.

Sincerely,

Harold Weinberg

Mr. Weisberg:

In March 1971

I saw your chanel 5 metro media television in New York
"Bandy" and must say that you are a very knowlegable lawyer about the case of the late Rev. Dr.
Martin Luther King Jr. I'm wondering if it's possible to obtain a transcript of that trial state of James Earl Ray.
I have a lot of puzzeling questions on this matter and your telecast with Bandy has spurred my thinking but I need some written record. I would appreciate it if you would contact me with information leading to some correct conclusion

Thank You

Mr. HERMAN McKEEVER
