

If you have much US correspondence I suggest you do as I do, type or print. I also have poor handwriting. I'm not at all sure about your name.

But I write because I do not consider letters of concern, like the one you wrote, at all nutty. Not that I don't get some that are!

There is a real problem with books on the assassination for the average person/reader: knowing what is and is not responsible and deciding whether or not the books of conjecture are based upon real fact.

Of the books you mention the two best, and very fine they are, are Meagher's and Roffman's, both also out of print. Neither is still active in the field and while Roffman is young, as Meagher is not, he stays so busy I rarely hear from him. He is now a lawyer on the west coast.

It is impossible for me to bring you up to date on my work but I do keep a list of those who express interest and if and when I am able to publish more they will all be informed. In your case, please send me a legible name and address if you want to receive any notice.

I have done no work on the RFK case and I know of no really responsible book. However, a young friend of the late Allard Lowenstein, who was interested, has taken steps under the Freedom of Information Act to obtain official records and he does plan a book.

You ask about public response to my work. It has been almost entirely fine and encouraging and I guess at least 15,000 strangers have written me. (Can you imagine the time away from work responses take?)

Executive Action is a cheap commercialization of a CIA disinformation work aimed at confusion within the US. It is fiction, created by the French counterpart of CIA and then ripped off by Mark Lane and Ron Freed, whose movie connections got it out.

There was no FPCC involvement of any kind.

I did not publish Oswald in New Orleans, and it is out of print and I think costly. I've obtained a few copies, which are $25.00 plus postage, and that is rather much for a book that was only 95¢ to begin with.

Thanks for writing and please excuse my haste.

Sincerely,

Jim

I suppose since you wrote your first book on such a controversial issue such as you've been writing about, you have more than likely gotten letters from cranks who have only wasted your time and your patience. I do not intend to do either. I do not even expect a return of letter. But as a reader of all your books I felt I should let you know ~~how~~ how I felt. I may have been too young to comprehend what happened in 1963 as I was only 5 at ~~the~~ the time JFK was shot. But after nearly two year reading about political assassination, mostly reading your books. It is only fair to state other books that I have come across they are as follows: S. Messinger, H. Roffman, Mark Lane, Epstein, Buchanan, I have spelled the last name wrong but I think you know who I mean. I have read the entire White-wash series including MLK and James Earl Ray, the only book by yourself I have not read is Oswald in New Orleans which is out of spirit. I did not write this letter to criticize you or praise you but to thank you for putting light on a subject so riddled with dishonesty that you have tried very hard for people to ~~be~~ understand what happened to such a fine man as JFK. If you do reply to this letter could you please bring me up to date with your work, plus could you recommend work I should read on the RFK shooting, namely one that's not biased in favour of the one's it protects, one that is critical of the investigation. I would have like to have learned the response you get when from the public on such a matter of this kind. I must ask if you are familiar with a film called Executive Action which starred B. Lancaster & R. Ryan I found some pretty close to the done not just going by it is it possible that the Fair play for Cuba could have been a front to line Oswald into the ~~the~~ position he found himself, or is this too far-fetched P.T.O

I hope this letter doesn't take too much of your time in your fight for justice. I must report out that I don't read your books for sensation or gore but for
- case I find history was not his dis-honesty and good his men sought their own rain's before their own country's. I am sorry for the mistakes but when you're writing to a friend such as your self you don't to make a mistake. could you please tell Mr H. Koffman; I found this book a high standard of investigation and well written.
