

Dear Mr. Myers,

6/6/75

It is terrible to have to respond to so kind and thoughtful a letter as yours in great haste. But that is compelled by the amount of work I attempt.

At 62 I'm not that far behind you!

I hope you remember your letter:

My problem with the NYTimes is that they do know me and can't abide fact. It is holy water to them.

Have there been times when I could have used a proofreader!

If your experience includes the more efficient presses in the ^{area} ~~area~~, I'd like to know because I will soon face the need to reprint one of the earlier books. With little money.

And while it does not say who killed JFK, I've had the most definitive book of all -by far - done for a long time. Money only prevents its appearance.

Again thanks,

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Ms. Weinberg:

Onent the article about you in the Sunday Revue, June 1st 1975, it is a shame the New York Times did not know about physiognomy. You strike me as being highly intelligent. In fact, your ear level, from the eye, points that out quite strongly.

My opinions dovetail yours, if nothing else, from mother wit. It is an historical fact that the aftermath of all wars breeds immoral behaviors. Watergate was the culmination of a greed for power by little men, who for the most part were shyster lawyers.

Our great nation has long endorsed misfits in public office, who make laws to benefit themselves. We all suffer from the imposition of such enactments.

On the day when John Kennedy was shot down I was working at King Bros., Inc., in Balto., as a proof reader, It struck me as a perfidious plot when it occurred. I still think so.

The Warren Report was a "Whitewash" as you aptly called the document. Our Pentagon plays absurd games as does the Justice Dept. of the U. S. in their policies for entrapment through bugging phones, or manufacturing half truths to get anyone they desire.

I am 67 yrs. of age, a veteran of the Battle for Leyte Gulf, P.I., Oct. 24, 1944 and a journalist for 50 years. Justice is a strange word in our country.

I do hope you unravel the Jordan Knot and win national recognition for your efforts in seeking the whole truth.

Yours sincerely,
August C. S. Myers
