Dear Gary,

Shortly after you phoned yesterday I got another call, the reason I write while I have a few moments free. I do appreciate being updated and please thank David for me for the clippings he is sending. I do want to keep up to date on that whoring around with history. And even more money is now involved in that prostitution. People like Stone et al make shady ladies look respectable.

What I was told about, and I'm sorry I did not think to make notes, is in the current Publishers Weekly that you can see there. It may be a story, or an ad, or both. But the thrust is that the Garrison self-glorification is to come out in a Warner paperback if I understood correctly the end of the year. This makes me think perhaps to coincide with or to just precede the showing of the movies.

If I understood correctly, he got or is to get a million for it.

To recover that kind of a dvance requires an incredible sale of a paperback.

The book is to be retitled, "Kennedy." Obscene!

On your hunch that the Dallas Morning News and/or WFAA may be turned off on the Stoning, why not call this to Keal's attention and see if or how he or they react?

I'm sure the paper gets FW but that does not mean that David sees it or has it routed to him.

I do hope you are keeping some kind of notes because I am trying to interest someone in doing a book. Not for me to write. I'd also like as full a record as possible for archival purposes.

Best to you all,

Heard
