Dear Gary,

As you may recall, I've abominated all the phony, contrived "solutions" to the JFK assassination and have earned not a few enemies that way. Unlike the Commission truth is my only client.

In the past George Gardner and the DJ's chief of FOIA appeals have accused me of defending the FBI. I doubt if anyone at WFAA-TV is still there to remember it but when they importuned me to accept the Good Morning America invitation to appear I refused three times in a single day. It was too hard for me to get to Dallas and I was there. It was only when Jim Lesar phoned to give me a different perspective that I left Dallas and did defend the FBI on GMA, from the phony Mark Lane/Jimmy Ray allegation that the FBI killed King.

I have been making a record on some of the bad books, some briefly, some at length, some not at all. Like Oliver's. I do not plan to buy Walt Browns or to include it. But if the Morning News would like a review of it I'll be glad to do it if you'll be kind enough to go over it and edit it. I do avoid taking all the time I can from the writing I'm still doing and I'd not want to take a great amount of time for that. Particularly not because I'm now a slow reader.

If next year you hear from the travelling secretary of the Boston Red Sox, he is a friend and I've told him you'd taken him and nay players with him around your museum. I just heard from him after some time. He said he'd been busy but when they played down there he took some of the players to take a look at Dealey Plaza and maybe a few other places. He has been interested in the assassination for some time. And ~~but~~ he seems to be a good person.

I'd like to be able to get an advance copy of the Hosty and Breo books and to write about them. I'll probably do that later anyway but I could do informed reviews of both with what is new and interesting about both. If you've any idea who is to publish them and when I'd like to know. Aside from Breo in NEVER AGAIN! I've quite a bit on ~~Host~~ Hosty in a record I'm making for our history.

Best,
