Dear Gary,

Thanks for the unsigned card + presume was from you.

I believe I once wrote and asked you for what you had told me about Madeleine Brown that was effective on her untruthfulness. I decided to got the Brown Treachery in Dallas and then decided to leave a record about it for the record for history. I am doing those things in the form of book manuscripts. I think this one will not be a short one. I've about 30,000 word in rough draft now.

I doubt if in just reading it you could detect just how bad, how ignorant, how factually incorrect and stupid that egotrip is....

I've just realized that it puts me in the position of defending those he criticizes and to the point I've reached how unjust his criticisms are.

I've already past where I defended the Secret Service and Earl Rose from his ignorant abuses and in time I think this will, also be true about the Dallas police. Possibly more than the police in Dallas, too.

It is that bad a book, that ignorant and unfair and really stupid.

Because he boasts of his PhD it enables me to make the case that the professional historians also failed in that time of great stress and since then.

He uses Brown as a solid source as part of his phony case that the assassination was both a Texas oil mogul and Dallas crime.

So, I'm more interested in what you once referred to that I'd like to go back and insert where she claimed that in pillowtalk LBJ told her the whole story before it happened and said it would happen before the week was over. And possible refer to again later. He uses her often.

I'd not be surprized when I've finished this if a Texas publisher might be interested but I know of none and have no way of reaching any.

I hope you can find time to send me what you referred to about her, I think what happened to her in court.

Thanks and best,
