Dear Mr. Mackay,

Thanks for your thoughtful letter. Delay in answering is because I was away. What you report about the bookstores is true everywhere.

There is one of my books you do not have, the third, as the enclosed list shows. In some ways it is the hottest.

In time I think many of the "theories" will evaporate. Rather than try and agree with the beliefs of others that I earlier abandoned or never had any reason to credit I devote what time I can to continuing development of new fact on the subject. My fifth book has been ready for some time. It is not yet out because I now do not dare risk the additional debt.

Again, my hasty thanks.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

One other spectacular way to discover more about the death of J. F. K. would be to impeach Mr. Johnson and inquire into the assassination as part of the business of the proceedings. In point of fact I have moved for Mr. Johnson's impeachment three times with ten points for discussion by such a committee. One of these is the issue of Mr. Johnson's putting public documents in the national archives and holding them private till the year 2039 AD. The person to whom pleas of this sort should be made is Mr. J. W. Fulbright.

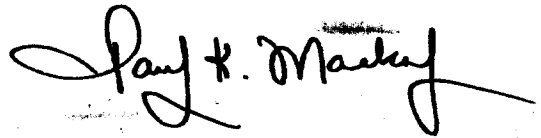

I have received a copy of "Oswald ~~in~~ in New Orleans" which I shall read very avidly. I have already read "Whitewash" and "Whitewash II." I will be commenting on the book as soon as I finish it.

It appears that you are already moving in the direction I suggested to you in your last letter. But I still believe another book is needed which investigates all theories. Naturally you have already examined the Warren Commission's theory and Mr. Garrison's theory and I suppose there is no need to repeat that. The formal results of Mr. Garrison's case should be very vital though in a reassessment of Garrison's theory so as to shed light on any others presented by you.

Thank you for so promptly sending the book Mrs. Weisberg.

Yours,

P. K. Mackal

P.S. Apparently "Oswald in New Orleans" is no longer being handled by Milwaukee book sellers! Absolutely no response several weeks ago.
