taught anyone how to use a telescopic sight. He do not deny having known Oswald "in the Civil A-Patrol or in any business or social capacity." It probable that Ferrie did not then know what the various police knew of him. Instead, he is quoted a having said "he has no recollection of knowing of having met" Oswald.

The first two paragraphs, which bear very much or what the FBI knew (and the reports do not say) and on what was subsequently learned, read:

EERRIE stated that at the time of the Bay of Figs Invasion of Cuitable way very embarrassed and concerned over the lack of air cover provided the Cubans who were engaged in the invasion and that he several vided the Cubans who were engaged in the invasion and that he several criticized President JOHNF, KENNEDY both in public and in private these criticisms and might have used an off-hand or colloquial expression "He ought to be shot" to express his feelings concerning the Cuban statement that President XENNEDY should be killed with the intention that this be done and has never and any statement that President XENNEDY should be the other of the should do it. FERRIE stated that when it came to serious discussions, when the question of impeachment of President KENNEDY arcse be opposed any impeachment proceedings. FERRIE said that within one year prior to the first Russian Sputnik he recalls being quite critical of the US Space Project and the Defense Program. He said he had also been critical of any president riding in an open car and had made the statis ment that anyone could hide in the bushes and shoot a president FERRIE also advised that he has been accused of being a worshipped of President XENNEDY's Civil Rights Program and Fiscal Program

This is self-serving language. Ferrie's public record on Kennedy and Cuba is really violent and is in no way described by the words "embarrassed and concerned," as we shall see. Saying the President of the United States "ought to be shot" is not just a "colloquial expression." The "Cuban situation" need not be a reference to the Bay of Pigs in either the time of the threat or the year in which it was made, which the FBI does not note. And to imply that possibly the threat was but a bad joke is the least one could expect of the man who made it. Without a complete rundown on
