Wear Gory, citcide tre eouctry, etc. Somethinc glse rade yo thick of fuchensm end, ss you'll. recy 12 Irom my lotters to uhris, I'vo beon sasking a bonk by him.

Today I has on anexrectod rnons anl from the cuy who fed us the "Wafie" tip. He says he hes seen the National Incuirer, which as an assassination/ Nem Orlans story by Buchanen in it, another to come. Fron the meager deacreption, Which Fiked not be accurate, it sounds like "Taremell Americe Revisited".

The renewed $A I S$ newsletter came today and I've road it. It has the Th IS metariel, promises Iillian's, and has on unsufilciently-modified Gientism. But there hos bean moderstion.

Again, not so you' 21 aek than, for I'd ratier you dian't, but I've not hear a word from Lillian/Fred, despite their promise to yoz to send me this material. It is as a yardstick that I tell you this.

Replied to Mary's letter immediately. Enclosed. If she begins oy lovines everyone, and I do think she does, she may be in for a rude awakening whon sho hears What he stole fron Lifton or is gcoused of making passes at Ered! I believe she should knoz the truth, whether or not she is gulded by it, and it would be food for us to have an evaluotion of whether the scheme is done.

In writing hecht and told him we cen neve the transcripte for xeroxing cost end prorete on the overheed. I told ham it would certainly be under lo: per vege. I asked Bud to help elong, and ho indicated a willingness. Unles we do something like this, too ereat 8 burden vill fall on Taul. I do not know whether on thot he cen efford it, but when Cgril, Bud and Sylvia can get it with neisher efiont not rork, I mould hore they would not mind defreyine some of aul's coet thet he doesn't pass on. He mould not ask for it, If he can afford it, he can better upe thet money for documonts, Ior the others are not buying thom. I've nade agenergi inuiry of Sylvia but w ve had no response. Nothins eliss new.
