Dear Mr. Dugan,

Today's mail brought your Memorandum of Points and Authorities and the envelope in which the misaddressed copy had been returned to you.

Jim Lesar told me of this. I went in and saw the postmaster because I have not moved, the envelope was not undeliverable and it is not true that they were "unable to forward." The routes were renumbered more than a year ago and the clerks find it easier to toss envelopes into a return bin than to give them to the carrier.

I am, however, at a loss to understand why Route 3 was used when the renumbering was prior to the filing of the complaint.

I am also at a loss to understand how your foresightedness was undone. I appreciate your adding magic tape to the lips of the envelope. It was open when I received it. If there were any other enclosures I did not receive them.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
