

Anti-LBJ

He says (4th col, Newsweek, Post 1/ 23/67) not that the book is not anti-LBJ but that "The book is not pathologically anti-LBJ". He then says "I am distressed that there have been so many anti-Johnson stories attributed to the book. They are not true and they are not in the book at all. But I couldn't avoid reporting what he actually did".

Examples, from his public statements; tong; the Connally under the window story, whole handling of the trip back, swearing in, where he lied to make an anti-LBJ scene on plane. The whole handling of the former JFK aides aides' attitudes, to make it seem they considered LBJ the assassin.
