

Silenced Warren Aide Critical of Manchester

By [Name] (faded)

When I read the text comment on it, I was shocked. I worked intimately for one year with the chief justice—

Manchester said that he had seen nothing would be commentary on the matter for

Manchester said that he had seen nothing would be commentary on the matter for

Manchester said that he had seen nothing would be commentary on the matter for

Manchester said that he had seen nothing would be commentary on the matter for

Manchester said that he had seen nothing would be commentary on the matter for

CITES STATEMENT

To point up his remarks, the source cited a statement made by Manchester on last Sunday's hour-long "Meet the Press" NBC telecast.

Asked whether he believed that in view of possible inadequacies in the findings of the Warren report, the inquiry should be reopened, Manchester replied, "no."

Manchester went on to say: "I was a privileged observer of the Warren Commission hearings at the invitation of the

RANKIN FIRD
REDLICK JALLE
SPECTER BOGGS
LIEBERLO
JENNER
SLOBBY
BELL
BALL