Jackie to Manchester: Get Well Soon

By ARTHUR GREENSPAN

New York Post Correspondent Middletown, Conn., Dec. 27-Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and Sen. Robert F. Ken-nedy have sent telegrams to hospitalized author William Manchester expressing distress at his illness.

Mrs. Kennedy's message was sent from New York several hours before she departed for a Caribbean vacation. She said she was "distressed" to learn of the author's nospitalization with pneumonia here, and told him "how much I hope" he will recover soon.

MRS. JACQUELINE KENNEDY

A Surprise Move By Book Publisher

By WILLIAM GREAVES and WILLIAM H. RUDY

In a move which caught Mrs. Jacquellne Kennedy's lawyer by surprise, Harper & Row today asked for and was granted a hearing Thursday in the suit over William Manchester's book, "Death of a President."

Manchester's book, "Death of a President."
Posiponement of court action in the suit over William Manchester's book, "Death of a President."
Posiponement of court action in the suit over William in the suit over the suit suit over the suit suit over the suit set over other set over the suit set over soon. The Senator wired his get-well message from Sun Valley, Idaho, where he is on a skiing vacation with his family. Both messages were tele-phoned to Middlesex Memorial Hospital here by Western Union late yestorday. The text of the Senator's message was not available but from sources close to the Kennedy's and gram suit: "Please know how distressed "Please know how distressed

"Please know haw distressed I am to know that you are sick, and how much I hope you will be better soon." The 44-year-old Manchester, author of "The Death of a Presiend from a self-imposed retreat dent," emerged over the week-dent," emerged over the week-ago. Into which he disappeared on re-turning from Europe two weeks Now he is the patient in Room 517, with an eyepatch over his right eye and contin-uous treatment with antibiotics to attest to a Christmas week-end which rouldn't have been

WILLIAM MANCHESTER
Spollat they rein? After it is apart to his liness.
"After viral infection you sometimes have a raceture dark of they might not understand some several years, pictured the wave for dua raver of this roaved this reace of an eye injury.
Marchester is recovering paychiatric help hysicially from the penumoning which for a time had piaced into the critical list, the doctor said, and needs mainly troubled by the lawsuit. As source of and sever since has been depressed ever since has been depressed ever since to so history on the mend. "He is receiving the depression." He said fuels today, at breaking.
The one serious as far as the resticual effects are concerned ing in the call stills today, at breaking. There is no history in the magnitum.
The not psycholic, he doesn't is not psycholic, he doesn't is nothing permanent to vorr.
The not hatory in the magnitum.
The not has roak not have not wave as ascharer and hogelial to a subscient is nothing permanent to vorr.
The addition the sector as a far at the gath the cannes tand feels so the psycholic, he doesn't is nothing permanent to vorr.
The addition the sector as a static we settled, he'll have sector.
The addition the sector as a static here was a section.
The main the writer had seem the sector.
The main the call right the earth of a time was a section.
The main the main the call right to rest, the sector the cornea of his right to the sector.
The main the cornea of the rest of the sector.
The main the dealt right to the sector.
The main the main t

Snow and freezing weather was partly to blame for lengthy ubway delays and one injury today, according to the Transit Authority.

Aumority. An IRT train bound for Flushing's Main St. terminal de-veloped mechanical trouble at 8:30 a.m. and stalled in the Vernon and Jackson Avs. station in Long Island City, it snarled operating schedules in both directions on the ucens line for more than an hour.

more than an hour. Earlier, at 8:22, a southhound F train of the IND devel-oped door trouble and stalled in the station at Lexington Av. and 52d S4, for 13 minutes. On the BMT in Queens, a train bound for the 168th St. terminal in Jamaics encountered switch trouble in the 111th St. station in Richmond Hill at 7:22, and was held up for 29 minutes. The TA biamed the snow and cold. In the IET's Long Island City ticup, police said a passen-ger's foot was crushed between cars as a following train tried to push the staffed one. They said cars of the pushing train somehow became uncoupled. The injured man was identified as William Heitzner, 61, of somenow became uncoupled. The injured man was identified as William Heitzner, 61, of 378 West End Av. He suffered a leg lnjury at 9:30 a.m. when he fell between the third and fourth cars of the pushing train. He is in St. John's Hospital, Long Island City.

The author's wife, Julia, has not yet been to the hospital because she, too, is confined to her bed on Tracey's orders.

Visitors Are Barred

visitors are surred Manchester will be hospital-ized for at least a week and perhaps 10 days, normal with this kind of illness. And while here he will remain in virtual isolation. The hospital informa-tion card has written on it, un-derlined in red, "No visitors ex-cept wife." The talephone in Mandhester's

The telephone in Manchester's

The telephone in Manchester's room has been disconnected. Tracey has ordered Manches-ter not to talk about the book; not to do any work on it. The world's press has been jamming the hospital switch-board for word on Manchester's condition. Hundreds' of calls, many from Europe, have de-luged the hospital telephone operators. erators.

3

Were You Late?