Dear Mr. Mankiewicz,

5/28/92

Thanks for the collection of clippings with your letter of the 26th. I've found parts worthy of the attention I hope to give these peopagandists when I have the text of the article and of the press conference.

I'm told the magazine is not sold locally. Perhaps I can borrow a copy. But if you by any chance get the article or the press conference transcript, please remember that old devils love ~~script~~ scripture even more.

The Times had an editorial on the 21st that perhaps was missed in your clipping or perhaps was not included in the belief it might embarrass me. On the chance it was missed I enclose a copy.

I have written the Times about this. Although I do not expect them to give serious thought to publishing what I submitted, I'll not send you a copy now to observe forms.

But before long I'll send you the copy. You may want it for file.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am enclosing a collection of clips and responses to the AMA statement, which I found as astonishing as you did. And now I imagine the full statement is available in the Journal of the American Medical Association, although I do not have a copy. I found the Wecht analysis quite compelling.

Sincerely,

Frank Mankiewicz
Vice Chairman
