Mr. Frank W. Manning
Office of the Attorney General
Room 104, Supreme Court Building
New Orleans, Louisiana 70150

Dear Mr. Manning:

I have been advised by Inspector H. Lynn Edwards of his conversation with you on March 1, 1967, relative to the investigation being conducted by New Orleans District Attorney James C. Garrison, as well as the information you furnished concerning sex deviates and the possibility of a "shake down" racket involving individuals in the New Orleans, Louisiana, area.

Based on the information you made available to Inspector Edwards, there is no violation within the jurisdiction of this Bureau, and on the contrary, there appears to be a most serious violation of state law concerning which you have had information for some time. Consequently, I would suggest that any investigation of this "shake down" racket of sex deviates would be more appropriately made by state authorities.

Sincerely yours,
