LAYTON MARTENS or MARTEN,
LAYTON MARTIN,
MARTEN LAYTON or LAYTONS

LAYTON MARTENS at NOFO, 1/24/62, advised he was arrested by NOPD at his residence, 112 Egret Street.

He advised he had recently been arrested by the NOPD for vagrancy and loitering and was held 3 days and released. He said he went to the Records Room of the NOPD and found out that he had been released as "case refused" by District Attorney. During his visit to the office he said that DAVID FERRIE had been arrested as homosexual and further that FERRIE was also connected with the CDF, (Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front).

His purpose of appearing at the NO field office was to determine if any record had been made of his arrest as he said he was attending to enter the Air Force Academy and did not want this arrest to appear on his record as he felt it would be detrimental to his being accepted at the Academy.
