Dear Shirley:

Thanks for your long, interesting, informative and very kind letter which I shall have to postpone answering in detail until I have time. I am so busy I have done no work on WHITEWASH III really in several weeks. I did some work at the Archives for others today and now must report to them in a rush because at 11:30 p.m. my time I will begin a telephone broadcast to San Francisco and I want to get the report to them in tomorrow's mail.

It may interest you to know that Castor now wants to speak to me. Farry (Ferris) is of immediate interest to Penn and I am getting him what I can.

You have a very interesting point on the epileptic, made more interesting by the unforeseeable tardiness of the motorcade. You might also add the Rowlands to your list on it.

I ~~am~~ may not get around to much of an answer, but I will appreciate anything you send me, and eventually all of my files will wind up in a university archive.

Thanks for your order for WHITEWASH III but I cannot accept payment for it. I will send it to you when it is available (hopefully, late February or early March).

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
