

3/24/67

Dear Shirley,

As you asked, I shall be "gracious" about the papers, which I have just mailed back. They were helpful.

However, may I, in return, mail out a few books for you? If you'll accept this, please send me names and addresses and which books.

There is in the States-Item of 2/24 a story only the second part of which I found. The jump on the inside has the headline "Farré Held 'Definitely Radical'". I'd like the first part, if you have it.

The original 2/17 story was not there, was it?

The package was in pretty bad shape when it got here. I made a stout one and insured it for $150.00. I hope it gets through in good shape, but if it doesn't you'll have the money to replace damaged ones with, anyway.

I keep plugging away at the book. I've a few chapters to go then I've got to read it and give it a fast editing.

Again, many, many thanks.

I'm convinced that sane or not Farré was an amazingly able man, evil ability, especially. You'll understand better when you see "Oswald in New Orleans". I hope to have commercial publication.

Sincerely,
