Dear David,

The circulatory problems of which I believe I wrote you have reduced my time very much. This requires less time in letters.

Glad you have a new job and are getting your family all together.

I think you have bit off too much. You can't do that much condensing unless you have an open-ended serial.

Why not take one simple but significant subject and see what you can do with it within the time limits you have set for yourself?

I'm not at all sure that there is a legitimate media objective in getting people to sign petitions, especially with the histories of the Congressional investigations. Informing them is different and legitimate.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr Weisberg

I realize it must seem to you as if I am a little spasmodic in my correspondance. Let me explain.

Since the last time I wrote to you, I have gotten a new job at a radio station here in Borger, Texas. I have been extremely busy trying to settle here and get my wife and baby moved up from Corpus Christi.

I must confess also, that I had almost come to the conclusion that the J.F.K Assassination was a mute point.

But now, with the influx of all the Assassination movies on T.V.; I have redoubled my efforts to produce my documentary. My biggest problem is trying to condense your books down to a hour and a half or two hour shooting script. I don't want to do your books an injustice, but the average citizen could not sit through all the technicalities. I want to try to get enough information in, to get people excited enough to sign petitions, or to find out more for themselves about the Whitewash the Government did.

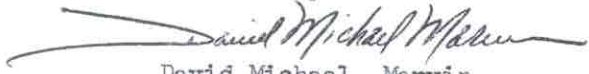

As I told you before Mr. Weisberg. I cannot promise how successful this endeavour will be. I can promise you that your books hold a special place in my heart and your material will be treated with the highest regard as to accuracy.

This country is in a sad state of affairs, and it is a constant concern of mine. As I know you feel, we don't want to tear the country or the Government down, we just want it to be what its suppose to be. A Government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

In your last letter, you mentioned taking some pictures of the sewer opening on the street in front of the grassy Knoll.

I hope to go to Dallas next month. I'll do my best to get what you want.

For Now
Sincerely Your Friend
