Dear Mr. & Mrs. Weisberg:

Just a note to wish you a Merry Christmas and a bountiful New Year and to apologize for my lengthy silence.

I've just returned from almost three months sailing in the Mediterranean and some time ashore in France. The opportunity appeared and I had to avail myself.

I had the occasion to spend several weeks in a monastery in Aix, France, in October. Spent time with the priests rediscovering Thomas Aquinas and Augustine. They tolerated me pretty well!

Will be leaving in a few days to spend some time in Canada with a priest from Malta, whom I met during the trip. The address on the envelope is serviced by my sister, who is maintaining my mail, including this card.

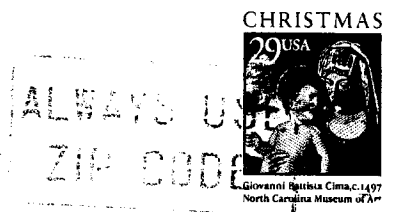

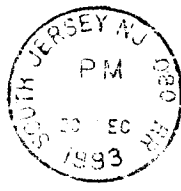

I'll write to you more extensively upon my return in January.

Until then...Happy Holidays...

John
