Dear Mr. Masland,   11/24/91
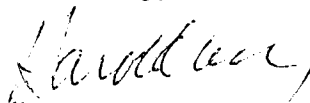

I appreciate your letter of the 20th very much. Thanks. At this st age of my life such expressions hf appreciation do mean much to me.

You are very fortunate to have been able to latch onto both the 26 volumes and Meagher's great book. She also did two versions of indexes, both published by Scarecrow Press if you can get a copy. The second includes the House Select Committee on Assassinations. Both are selective indexes but still quote helpful.

The committee also addressed the King assassination. This is not in that index.

Again thanks and best wishes in your almost-here retirement,

                                        Sincerely,

                                        Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter of the 16th instant. I'm happy to hear the tapes arrived safely and I hope they are of value to you.

I want you to know that your books have captured most of my free time since I obtained them. I have found them to be absolutely first class. Of particular impact has been the sense of objectivity vice sensationalism with respect to the subject matter. I am in your debt for clarifying, albeit at this late date, many of the troubling aspects of this crime and for your commitment to the truth.

Your work aroused such interest that I decided last week to attempt to obtain a copy of the Warren Commission's report. I found a complete set, in virtually new condition, yesterday and look forward to spending time with it, using your work to guide me.

Of some note, I found a copy of Accessories After the Fact, which you recommended.

Per your letter, I am very much interested in obtaining a copy of Oswald in New Orleans and have enclosed a check for the amount of thirty dollars. Should that be insufficient please advise me and I will post the balance.

Again, thank you very much for sharing your work with me and please give my regards to Mrs. Weisberg.

Sincerely,

John W. Masland
