Dear Mr Weisberg:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you and your wife for your gracious hospitality of the 9th instant. I very much enjoyed chatting with you and trust my visit wasn't too long an intrusion.

I have copied the Arts and Entertainment network television show The Men Who Killed Kennedy and will post it, under separate cover, not later than 13 November. The program has been copied onto three tapes as follows: Part 1 on cassette 1; Parts 2 & 3 on cassette 2; and Parts 4 & 5 on cassette 3. The tapes are recorded at standard speed, hence the need for three tapes. Standard speed records with the highest clarity and tolerates repetitive playing better than the extended speeds. I hope you don't mind the commercials which I haven't edited out - they may be of interest to those who view the tapes in the future.

Again, thank you for your hospitality and I wish you and your wife continued health and good wishes as the holiday seasons approach.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Masland,

Thanks for your letter of the 11th, the A.C.H. JFK assassination series cassettes, which got her the same time, and for your care to record with the best possible quality.

If I did not mention it when you were here, what I think is the best JFK assassination documentary is "Reasonable Doubt," now available commercially.

It was the master's thesis of Gerard Selby, Univ. of Md., and it won the highest honor in the competition a couple of years ago in the history division.

Deals with the single bullet theory that is the basis of the official solution.

If I also did not mention it, we now have a xerox version of Oswald in New Orleans.

It is two book pages to one side of a sheet of letter-size paper.

We hope you enjoy your retirement!

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
