4/9/80

Dear John,

We've been thinking and wondering and come to believe you were on the other side of Timbuktu. Glad you are back! If you'd been here yesterday we could have celebrated my 80th.

I've such an accumulation of clear-one-side paper from the new book I'm saving branches 'is not trees and drops if not buckets of energy.

Just north of us in PA is pretty country. The technologist who takes my blood thrice weekly lives at if not exactly in Gettysburg. Enough space to raise a few goats. Would you like me to ask her and her husband for a rundown on the area and what might be available near where they live?

Aside from taxes on retirement, in general, taxes in West Virginia are lowest in the area. Closer to here, hence to DC, than Gettysburg.

The only time I'll be away as far as I now know is 5/3, when I'm to go to Hopkins for a day.

That is a pretty wild enclosure. Do we need a Brady bill on their computer bulletin board?

I have some pretty bizarre news for you, too, about the goings-on of Harry Livingstone et al. If you have not read them, he is the author of High Trash 1 and 2.

According to him, I am a special psyops operator working on him for the conspiracy. Which conspiracy, you ask?

The conspiracy to protect the conspiracy that got JFK offed.

He has recast me until he has me the "ringleader."

It has not been dull here while you were away back of the outback.

Our best,

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

HELLO...I've returned from the dead...I hope that both yourself and Mrs. Weisberg are well and looking forward to spring...

I am in receipt of your January 24, 1993 letter...thank you...regarding my requests for disclosure there is not one piece of mail in the whole lot which has accumulated since I last spoke to you...

A quick pass on recent history...I have been out of the country...finally could no longer tolerate the absurd actions of the Administration on two key issues in which I was involved...so I called it quits and retired...am now in the process of getting my affairs in order...my plans are to relocate to somewhere just north of you across the state lines to PA...not certain where yet...driven purely by $$...PA will not tax my retirement income...accordingly, if I am frugal I can spend the next couple of years (?) to research and writing...am looking forward to that...

I will be out of pocket for a bit as I go through the motions of relocating and all that's entailed...hope to have that done by late May/early June...will keep you informed along the way...also hope to have the opportunity to make a short visit at some point...will call ahead on that...

I've inclosed a most extraordinary, as in bizarre, document...it was sent to me electronically, via the National Rifle Association's computer bulletin board...thought you might find it of some interest (?)...
in NR file

Well, that's all for now...please give my regards to Mrs. Weisberg...hope to see you soon...

Sincerely,

John W. Masland
