Dear John,

Thanks for phoning to tell me that I'd made a mistake in assuming the editorial clipping was from the NYTimes. The clipping was unmarked. I added the date only, assuming incorrectly that it was from the ~~NYTimes~~ paper whose story was with it.

Don't feel badly about this. ~~Thanks for phoning to tell me that I'd made a mistake in assuming the editorial clipping was from the NYTimes. The clipping was unmarked. I added the date only, assuming incorrectly that it was from the NYTimes paper whose story was with it.~~ It was my mistake and I should have spotted the difference in the type at least, and the head in the editorial.

Please excuse the ~~haste~~ haste.

I notice that with your 5/25 you are copying my hours. I do ~~not~~ recommend it!

What you got from Miami appears to be identical with the portion of the same tape that I published in Post Mortem. I've not checked to be certain. But Miami should have more, as I do from the city government and I know others got from it.

I am also fairly certain that I used Barry's story, possibly in Oswald in New Orleans.

But I'm glad to have a copy to file with this transcript.

I've checked the AP story in the 5/19 Baltimore Sun and it does say that articles, plural, were released by the AIA at that news conference.

I'm about to leave for the regular checkup by the local cardiologist. I'll see if he has the magazine and will let me have a copy. If so I'll start a point-by-point response as soon as possible. It will not be as soon as I'm home because someone is coming then and may stay until late in the afternoon.

I'm keeping the file on this in my (misnamed for me) desk organizer if when you are here again you want to see if it holds anything of interest to you that you do not have.

I have my Crenshaw file there, too.

Do you suppose that the ~~data~~ <sup>data</sup>base did not classify the AIA ploy under "health?"

Our best

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I enjoyed visiting with you and Mrs. Weisberg on Saturday.

Per our discussion, I've inclosed a copy of what I received from Miami regarding the Somerset-Milteer tape. Also inclosed is a copy of the short paper you provided me concerning FBI informants.

I've posted FOIA requests to SS and FBI about SS agents at the Dallas library described by Marvin Buhk and the Robert Barrett's participation in LHO's arrest. Will advise.

Sincerely,

John W. Masland

P.S.

I ran a database search this evening against the article in JAMA - it's not listed in Health Database Plus - must not be out or uploaded yet - 27 May publication date may be firm - will check later this week -
