Mr. Harold Weisberg

Dear Harold:

I'm sorry that the backlog of work which piled up during my absence has delayed my response to your last letter.

I would be glad to obtain copies of a limited number of newspaper stories for you from the Library, if you can give me fairly precise references. In addition to the name and date of the paper, the headline, page reference or description of the story would be helpful.

In regard to the Archives, I would be glad to inquire about delays in responding to your orders. Here again it would help to have a rough chronology of your requests, particularly those still pending, and the delays involved.

If you would send those two pieces of information to the attention of my Legislative Assistant, Miss Carrie Johnson, in my office, that would expedite my inquiries.

I look forward to having a chance to talk with you about the other points in your letter. As you can guess, my schedule has been very hectic since I returned.

With best from the entire family.

Sincerely,

Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.
United States Senator
