

December 20, 1970
Dear Harold and hel, just a quickie note (and by God a delayed one) to both say hello, wish to wish you the very Merriest of Christmases and Happiest of New Years from Orsha and me!

Everything is perfect here; we couldn't be happier... (in fact I keep expecting to wake up and find it all a dream, being back in that wonderful night mall that was Arthur's Rascallable) and then the Enormous Monthly.

Comis Agel me 'll be returning to Vienna where Orsha will give a couple of lectures on Swiss (operatic) what is of the 20's and 30's, as well as recording techniques then and now. Should be interesting - we're both looking forward to the experience.

I hope all is well with you and that things are progressing along nicely with your many many important projects. (I'd like to be more specific on a postcard, and promise a long note after the holiday confusion's over.)

Please write when you have a moment (or make one... as you always manage to do) - I'll do the same.

Meanwhile, all the best in 1971 to you both - miss you muchly muchly!
Love
Anne Ritchie
