

John --

Here are some possible stories I would like to work on in the Garrison investigation. I think it is important that we keep ahead of the game in this because at least two of the television stations have men working exclusively on investigative aspects of the case. One station I know ~~ix~~ has, for reasons unknown, been sitting on more than 20 stories, already taped.

~~--- Truth and Consequences~~

-- Truth and Consequences. Arrange an interview with Rault or Robertson, try to find out who else is involved. Explore the potential danger of a private group paying a public official. Bring out the possibilities of this sort of venture. Try to get Rault to say that this is a case of the end justifying the means.

-- Gordon Novel. This is a man with a strange background. He came from a broken home. All his life he has been trying to assert himself against his stepfather. He joined the Nazi movement as a boy, met with fellow young radicals in an abandoned theater in Metairie. Police raided it, found loads of Nazi materielle. He was thrown out of Jesuit High when he was nabbed by police after he and others attempted to sabotage a train.

-- Perry Russo. I knew this guy at Loyola and I think he will talk to me. We could get an exclusive interview about his background, maybe lead him into talking about the investigation.

Woke May

-- Layton Martens. Gurchich told me that this is the only person alive who knew all of the people involved in the conspiracy. I have gotten chummy with him and I think he would talk to me. We have mutual friends, interests. It would be interesting to get his story of how he came to know Ferris.

Gurchich told Yockey on 4/24/67 that CIA-paid persons assassinating JFIC was a "pretty good theory." We nodded and said, in effect, we were on the right track. (E)
