Dear Harold -

I have not written because things have been utterly quiet, no developments. Those I hear from seem generally discouraged about the state of the case and the state of the world - as I am, too. Have you any news? Any prospects for PM III?

I hear that Garrison is writing a book. Personally I think he would be wise to be quiet for a while - very quiet.

Also hear that Lane is being sued by a party who invested a huge amount in his film (R to J) and is trying to recover his due profits.

Let me hear from you when you have some leisure to write - but not if it takes your time away from important work. Best -

Lyn
