Ray's Charges Said To Be Self-Serving TOW

sulted from a conspiracy between the FBI and the Memphis Police Department. Ray's testimony that the assassination re-Men who were law enforcement offi-cials in Memphis when Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was shot discount James Earl nations Committee yesterday was false. Ray's allegation before the House Assassi-All the officials interviewed agreed that chief in 1968, shrugged off Ray's accusa-LIODSIC Henry Lux, who was the Memphis police

1

"It's so ridiculous that it hardly requires

いたいできたいというないないであるというできた。 アイドアデアのかい いたいない ないのでん いたい ないかい ひょうしん たいかい ひょうかい ひょうかい アイト・アイト アイ・アイト・アイト・アイト

Prove State

の言語の語ない

30 10

eres and and and an answer," he said. "All the facts point to officer supposedly pointed to the boarding James Earl Ray as the killer and (indicate) house, where Ray had been living for two days, as the origin of the shots.

pointing an accusing finger at other per-sons. "You are looking at a man who is in jail — his object is getting out." Lux said he is not surprised that Ray is tang.

dercover policeman was the first person to resch King after he was felled by gunshots at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis. The MEMPH S Ray claimed new FBI documents show that a police conspiracy led to King's with an ulterior movtive for his latest tes-death. He told the committee that an un-dercover policeman was the first person to who has written a book on the tragedy.

Ray contends that when the killing oc-curred he was at a Memphis gas station repairing a damaged tire on his white Mus-probably is adding more pages for a sequel with all the recent publicity.

said "Lane is getting a lot of headlines," Lux in 1968, brands Ray's recent disclosures as "absurd." Robert Jensen, who was the FBI director the Memphis Police Department and the FBI did," Jensen said. "My conscience is clear." "I am not the least bit ashamed of what Frank Holloman, then city police direc-tor, said Ray's testimony should not ve treated seriously.

Waid The "I don't see where it merits a comment," 1

S PRESS-SCIMITAR, THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1978