

Q. I understand that a man named Eugene Fubini is America's number-one spy. Is there anything you can tell us about this shadowy figure?—William Casper, San Diego, Calif.

A. Dr. Eugene Fubini, 56, is an Italian-born physicist from Turin, who was educated in Italy, received his doctorate in Rome. He came to the U.S. in 1939,

Parade 7-20-69

WALTER SCOTT'S Personality Parade

to learn the truth about prominent personalities used unless otherwise requested. Volume of material worked for the Columbia Broadcasting System. In World War II, he did research at Harvard, later consulted for the U.S. military in Europe. He became a U.S. citizen in 1945.

He is an acknowledged expert on electronic espionage, was appointed as Assistant Secretary of Defense by President John F. Kennedy. On June 5th, after a stint at IBM, Fubini was hired by NASA as a consultant. Dr. Fubini lives in New Canaan, Conn., with his wife and six children. He is an electronics specialist, knows a great deal about code-breaking and intelligence devices, but is no shadowy figure.