US Softens . Inimision

report separation on mally to alliminate the need for on site inspection to cheek suspicious to improve significantly the serth storagious and prepare pects for negotiating a han on underground, nuclear testing, given a political decision to do so. The revised summary in effect undercuts the scientific strides that had been reported less definitive.

The uniginal report stated that with appropriate instrumentation, earthquakes regis-that with appropriate instrumentation, earthquakes registerias A on the Richter Scale come of directional with accuracy from inderground nuclear tests of an equivalent magnitude—meaning as low as one to two kilotons. That would cover just about every weapons test by the Soviet Union and the United States since atmospheric testing was hanted in 1963.

The possible to distinguish earthquakes from underground tests below a Richter magnitude of 4.5.

See NUCLEAR, A8, Col. 1

See NUCLEAR, A8, Col. 1

mately 5 to 10 kilotons.

by the Pentagon's Advanced Research Projects Agency explained the revisions in the nique. report's summary by saying the original failed to relect a "consensus" of the conference views of only one unnamed report and the original sum-carried on in the last four

Based on Measurements

The technique for discriminating between earthquakes Pentagon. and underground tests dis- The Pentagon's sensitivity and underground tests dis. The Pentagon's sensitivity 400 earthquakes, many of cussed at the conference was to the report was apparent to based on measurements of two Case, who said that the volume outside the United Case, who said that the volume of two Case, who said that the volume 22. through the body of the earth (body waves).

In more than 400 seismic its body waves than will a nuclear explosion.

The original report showed tists were able to do five years lier version existed. ago in differentiating explosions from earthquakes. When the question of a ban on underground nuclear testing was asked about the alterations in discussed 10 years ago U.S. the summary, said: "The origiground tests in the Soviet cleared for open publication.
Union equivalent in earth-Apparently, the original sumquake force to 4.75 on the Rimary was done by a man who chter scale, which is about

Since many tests were below this magnitude the United States felt on-site inspections were necessary for an underground test ban to be reliable. The Soviet Union rejected on-site inspection, although at one point offered to the other half of the meeting. accept three inspections annually.

paper should make it possible explain the discrepancies. monitor a ban on underat one time prepared to accept.

Within Competence

director William C. Foster to say whether that one man said last February that "it is was on the staff of ARPA. fully within our scientific competence to monitor adequately that the major difference was

That is equivalent to approxinal summary in the ARPA re. 4.5 as in the revised summary. inside the Soviet Union. port and the newly revised The ARPA scientist said:
"The difference between 4 and The original report grew out of a conference held at Woods Hole last summer, sponsored by the Pentagon's Advanced may be differentiated by the think is possible in real world (ARPA). A scientist in ARPA seismic discrimination tech-conditions. Everything we can

When The Washington Post done in real life." on April 11 carried an article 400 Quakes Covered on the scientific findings based on the full two-volume showed that experiments were mary, a number of senators cording to the report, seismo it should now be possible to and foreign embassies remeter arrays in Norway and in enter into a treaty prohibiting questioned copies from the four states in the United all nuclear tests.

based on measurements of two Case, who said that the volkinds of waves that are produced both by explosions and earthquakes: those that pass along the surface (surface ban on underground nuclear he get the original summary. he get the original summary. He later received the revised summary.

One diplomat from a counevents measured, it had been try allied with the United observed that at least down to States says he got a runa-a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and a certain level of magnitude, round from the Pentagon and results of the certain level of the an earthquake will almost alleven had one man tell him ways produce substantially that the report did not exit, more surface waves relative to when he finally got the two hefty volumes he received a copy of the revised summary When reached Friday he said a 20-fold gain over what scien- he was unaware that an ear-

A Pentagon spokesman scientists could detect under nal summary had not been had chaired only about half of equal to a 20-kiloton explosion. the meetings so it was not Since many tests were complete."

The spokesman said the revised summary contains "everything that is essential" in the original summary plus the substance of another summary from the person who chaired

Informed that the whole thrust of the revised summary Sen. Clifford P. Case (R. was different from the origi-N.J.) said recently that the nal, the spokesman allowed a gains reported in the ARPA scientist for ARPA to try to-

This scientist, who declined ground testing with the num- to be identified, essentially reber of inspections Moscow was peated the spokesman's words at one time prepared to acmary reflects the "consensus" of the entire meeting while the original reflected the And former arms control views of one man. He declined

The scientist acknowledged . a total test ban." in the ability to discriminate While there are a number of explosions of a magnitude as do in the laboratory can't be

The report, however. States were used to study the seismic motions of more than

NUCLEAR, From A1 differences between the original or States and at least 20 of them

At the same time, the seismometers measured more than 50 underground explo-sions at all five United States and Soviet sites, the two in Nevada, one at Amchitka Is-land in Alaska, at Semipali-tinsk in Siberia and Novaya Zemlya Island in the Arctic Ocean. When the existence of the report was disclosed , Sen. Ed-mund S. Muskie (D-Maine), chairman of the Senate subcommittee on arms control, said he would schedule hear years in the "real world." Ac- ings on the matter. Case said

Advertisement