The Washington Merry-Go-Round

icked Ike in Cl Pentagon

By Jack Anderson

The top-secret documents sto-Ellsberg contain startling evidence that the Pentagon in 1958 tried to trick President Eisenhower into using nuclear weapons against Communist China.

The military brass plotted, acording to the documents, to est their new tactical nuclear veapons in combat. The opporunity came in 1958 during a criis over two tiny, Nationalistheld islands, Quemoy and latsu, which the Communists threatened to seize.

The generals deliberately deceived the White House, which was misled, therefore, into tentatively approving the use of nuclear weapons to defend the islands. In other words, the United States was ready to fight a nuclear war 16 years ago over two insignificant islands, which kai-shek defend the islands, as today draw no more than a shrug from our policymakers.

The story of the Pentagon's secret Rand study by Morton H. report, wanted to use tactical Halperin, who later was to be-nuclear weapons to destroy Chicome a top White House secu- na's underground munitions rity adviser.

While Daniel Ellsberg was with Rand, he had official ac-falsely informed later made a copy of it in hopes he could someday testify about that could accommodate high-nuclear war, the American peo-brass from Kissinger's briefit to Congress. Halperin, who explosive conventional bombs ple were kept in blissful igno-had classified the two-inch powerful enough to knock out rance of the danger len a few weeks ago from Daniel place, has now sought unsuccessfully to declassify it, but tagon insisted, to do the job. had no idea Ellsberg had a copy.

thieves broke into Ellsberg's mander in the Pacific, who was ables, including his private pa- clear weapons against the Chi-year. pers. Among them was a secret photo copy. Police recovered the papers, which the Justice House. Department then sought to ob tain. But Ellsberg successfully ble, privy only to the top brass arranged for Congress to get he informed them that they custody.

gives a chilling account of the racks, he reminded the Penta-Quemoy-Matsu crisis. Here are gon, to handle the most power the highlights:

The two offshore islands came under intensive Communist artillery attack in 1958. The to "shut up," according to the United States, which was sworn Rand report, and the deception to assist Generalissimo Chiang of the White House continued. sumed the Communists were softening them up for an immi-tagon, President Eisenhower, nent invasion.

This led to some urgent con-Dulles and their advisers went swept under the top secret tingency planning in the Penta-Jahead with tentative plans to stamp. But in 1967, the shocking gon and the White House. The use nuclear weapons against plete list of people who called details were summarized in a military brass, according to the Communist China.

> dumps and gun emplacements. therefore, The Pentagon, the White thick document in the first the underground installations. It would take "nukes," the Pen-A copy of this false Pentagon A few weeks ago, sneak message reached a top comalso eager to test tactical nu-nese mainland but who was too honest to mislead the White By secret "back channel" ca-were wrong about the bomb The explosive Rand report racks. There were adequate ful conventional bombs.

The Pentagon fired back a hot order to the honest commander Impressed by this and other false information from the Pen-Secretary of State John Foster

Wisely, Eisenhower kept in his own hands the final decision when the nuclear button was to be pushed. Meanwhile, the Que moy-Matsu crisis happily simmered down.

of the most compelling comments on this secrecy was made by Christian Herter, the thoughtful, decent man who played a subordinate role in the 1958 crisis defore succeeding Dulles as Secretary of State the following

Those who lived through the Quemoy-Matsu developments; he once recounted, were acutely aware that they were in the midst of America's first nuclear crisis since the decision to bomb Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Yet to this day, the American people haven't been told how close they came to nuclear war. Footnote: The deception described in the Rand report has been all too typical of the military brass. They continue to use 'back channel" communications to exchange messages that they don't want their civilian superiors to see.

In the 1950s, the admirals ordered the Marine receptionist in Navy Secretary Francis Matthews' office to slip them a commained.

More recently, the Joint. Chiefs used the same system to spy on Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger. A Navy yeoman actually rifled through burn bags.