H. Weisberg -

I am in the midst of preparing a book which deals with assassination in American history, and as you might suspect, much of it will deal with the John Kennedy assassination.

Yours is one of many resource centers I have come across which dispenses information to the public on the John Kennedy assassination, and I would like to include it in a list to be published in the book.

To facilitate matters, I need to know the following information:

*What services does your resource center offer the public (bibliography, petitions, speakers, Free U course, etc.)?

*Do any of your services cost money to the general public? When writing you, should people enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope?

*Do you expect that your resource center will be in business at least through the entire year 1977?

*How would someone get in touch with you? Please furnish correct mailing address (and phone number if applicable).

*Who do you see as your constituency? (Students, the media, other researchers, legislators, etc.)

*How would you appraise the response to your group?

*How long has your group existed? What prompted its formation?

*Does your resource center provide other services aside from information on the JFK assassination?

*What do you regard as your group's most outstanding accomplishment?

If you know of other independent JFK assassination information centers I may not be aware of, by all means let me know or pass this letter on to them. I'm anxious to support such outfits.

Thank you for your help. I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Tom Miller

P.S. If you could send along a sample or two of your group's publication, that would help, too...tm.

per Harold: realize that most of this does not apply to you, but it does, I'd be interested for a response - TM.
