Dear Bill,

These two disks are what I wrote about ~~WALCETH~~ Groden and his ignorant and dishonest books. There are a few uncorrected errors remaining but they should not interfere with comprehension.

Within a few days I should have the disk of the second epilogue to Walceth. Jerry has a high opinion of it and Wrono believes that in the long run Walceth may turn out to be the most important of these books.

I've been working on my copy of the first epilogue and hope to get the retyping of that started soon. Was supposed to be day before yesterday but that was optimistic.

Jerry picked up the copies of WW his class will be using. That leaves us with eight copies. So, when it is possible, we can use more. With school starting up I have no way of knowing whether there will be other professors using it. Unless the orders come in.

You told me that Charles had to go to work for Gallo as a security man to make out. Will it be OK if we send him a token of our appreciation?

We'd like to.

If your daughter is not satisfied with those bookplates and can get those that she may prefer or if she wants to send the books to me, fine. I'll be glad to sign them. We used that means, expecting a more appropriate form, to reduce the risk to the books from all that shipping.

Thanks and our best,

Harold
