Mitchell Cites 'Foreign Interests' To Defend Wiretaps on Radicals

Mitchell said last night that domestic subversive groups "never in our history has this without judicial supervision. country been confronted with so many revolutionary elements determined to destroy by force the government and not trust the President in fulthe society it stands for."

Mitchell told the Virginia asked, and continued: State Bar Association in Roan- "To withhold such basic powgroups whose telephones are ground that might be abused being tapped without court is to argue, in a paraphrase of order "are idealogically and in (Alexander) Hamilton's words, right, pursuant to his foreign many instances directly con'that there ought to be no nected with foreign interests."

President.'."

The speech was Mitchell's

Attorney General John N. eral have the right to wiretap

"Are we, then, to trust the courts to fulfill their oath of dropping. The Justice Departoffice without abusing it but ment is asking the Supreme filling his oath?" Mitchell that domestic radical ers from the President on the

The Sixth U.S. Circuit Court strongest statement to date in of Appeals has disagreed with tration's contention that the no exemption for national se-President and Attorney Gen- curity cases from the Constitution's requirement, of court warrants before federal agents may conduct electronic eaves-Court to review and reverse the ruling.

The lower court said court permission was required to wiretap against so-called do-mestic suspected subversives even if the President has the relations power, to conduct unsupervised surveillance to gather "foreign intelligence."

defense of the Nixon adminis- Mitchell and held that there is | See MITCHELL, A4, Col. 4

MITCHELL, From A1

Mitchell's reference to the overseas links of some U.S. radical groups was made in connection with his argument the same argument he is making in the courts-that tion than any magistrate to dethere is no valid distinction termine the need to initiate between foreign and domestic power.

"There is no dividing line between hostile foreign forces seeking to undermine our inby any means necessary," Mitchell said. "I don't see how it were possible, I would say that history has shown greater danger from the domestic variety.

Mitchell said the United States would have two options "if the authority to issue a warrant in national security can cases is to be vested in magisdan trates only"-either to become the only nation in the world unable to conduct necessary eral judiciary", of information they lack the background to evaluation by persons un-rights?" The law will take estrained in national security feet Jan. 1.

matters or to wide dissuming tion to persons not authorized to receive such information." He added, "We submit that the President, by virture of his office and sources of information, is in a far better posisurveillance where the na-tional security is at stake."

The Sixth Circuit opinion

said the Justice Department's view of the surveillance power ternal security and hostile do-mestic groups seeking the breathtaking" and contained overthrow of our government "no suggestion of limitations on such power nor, indeed, any recognition that the sover we can separate the two, but if eign power of this nation is by Contitution distribute among three coordinte branches of government."

Reagan Signs Bill For Nonsmoker Seats

SACRAMENTO, Calif. June 11 (UPI)—A bill requiring airlines, railroads and buslines to surveillance or "to make dis- set aside special seating areas closure to any one or more of for nonsmokers was signed over 600 members of the fed-Thursday by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Preciate. Reagan, a nonsmoker, said the nature of the sensitive he signed the bill despite beinformation involved in na- ing "a little worried about how tional security cases," Mitchell far does government go in its said, "is not susceptible to infringement upon personal