

'Not a Mental Case,' Martha

By CLARE CRAWFORD and MINZOLA McLENDON

C 1572 Washington Star-News WASHINGTON

Martha Mitchell says she made up her mind to go straight before she leaves town this week.

"I want to be with my state in court and that means I'm not going to be in any more of these things," she said.

She is for the Republican Party for there is no cooperation on the

Mrs. MITCHELL talked freely about her situation to her husband and her mother, she said. However, she would not discuss the alleged charges of Democratic head of one of the nearby buildings.

cause she knows too much and has told what she knew in court.

She added new details of her arrest yesterday of a week to her story given in Newport, Calif., in her testimony that she was arrested by King is the new testimony of the Committee for the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Says, Packing Her Bag

—from a newspaper.

Mrs. MITCHELL left her car when King "threw me like a window, smashing me into a glass." She displayed scars on her left hand—one on her middle finger, another on her ring finger. She said her ring finger, which had five stitches, may be permanently enlarged.

Mrs. Mitchell described her "imprisonment," which "was a most bizarre thing—it was worse than the Watergate thing." However, she would not elaborate on "the Washington paper."

the big town for the logging of the Democratic investigation.

She said her hand had all right and that when it came back the next morning he found she had to give her left wrist to the hospital. King told her she was in the hospital and that she had to stay there for 24 hours. She said she was taken to Presbyterian Hospital for 24 hours.

She said she was given no food and was held continuously for 24 hours in the hotel. She said Lee Johnson, her secretary, did not help her during the scuffle.

Mrs. MITCHELL said she was taken to the hospital in the morning and that she was held there for 24 hours. She said she was taken to the hospital in the morning and that she was held there for 24 hours.

She said she was taken to the hospital in the morning and that she was held there for 24 hours. She said she was taken to the hospital in the morning and that she was held there for 24 hours.

She said she was taken to the hospital in the morning and that she was held there for 24 hours. She said she was taken to the hospital in the morning and that she was held there for 24 hours.