All that holds back the White House from referring the charges to the FCC, an aide told this column, is concern that the motive might be misunderstood.

Since Vice President Agnew's attack upon the TV networks, CBS has been the boldest about continuing its criticism of the Nixon administration. Some aides fear, therefore, that an FCC investigation would look like an attempt to intimidate CBS.

The White House memo, Specialist Pawlaszky was found charging that CBS has been guilty as charged. At the reinvolved in "highly questionaquest of the American Emble activity," cites these albassy, no further action was leged incidents: taken against Smith, who was

'Fraud by the Press'

The memo suggests tartly that CBS shouldn't be allowed that Webster refused to coopto use "freedom of the press" erate with the Army investiga-

Again on Feb. 17, 1970, CBS showed a South Vietnamese soldier "covering the face of a detainee with a towel and pouring water on it, thereby restricting his breathing. Also included was a brief shot of an were subpoenaed at the trial afleged U.S. adviser watching the incident."

But CBS again refused to cooperate with the Army investigators who, consequently, have been unable to identify the personnel involved." In contrast, NBC furnished the In Army with full information about a filmed beating incident that a U.S. officer watched, leading to disciplinary action.

CBS news director Gordon Manning explained to the Defense Department: "It is our policy to protect the security of our people in the field and the sanctity of news judgment and editing processes."

The investiga- what he believes would happen if the Communists were to win decisively in South Vietnam and he stresses the word decisively. First, all foreigners would be cleared out immediately and especially the several hundred foreign newsmen reporting from there. A curtain of ignorance would descend and the outside world would know little or nothing of what was happening.

Behind that curtain the night of the longknives would begin. All political opposition, actual or potential, would be systematically eliminated. Then would come personal revenge, a small wheel turning within the larger wheel of Communist retribution, as Pike puts it.

Since this report was prepared for the U.S. mission in Saigon it may be discounted. In the opinion of this observer, a carefully planned and thought-out program of asylum, with far more reality than is now in sight, must be evolved. United Nations supervision is surely the smallest pre-requisite. That would help to ease American withdrawal since, obviously, given the state of opinion in this country, American troops cannot remain indefinitely to insure against catastrophe.
