Dear Clerk,

We are preparing to move. I do not want this rare copy of your book to get lost. I will want to borrow it back to read it. Just haven't had time. I suppose the hours I put in seem in possible, perhaps foolish, but I feel I must do what I am doing, that no one else is doing it or will when it can mean what I think it must and will. I know the possible cost and am prepared to pay it. What I so much regret is that those who could help, those who now feel they should, have not and will not.

You were away when I brought PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH: SUPPRESSED KENNEDY ASSASSINATION PICTURES, out: I phoned in advance to give you advance copies of the Arnold and Berman reports that are in it.

Within a few weeks OSWALD IN NEW ORLEANS will be out. Parallax Pub Co is showcasing it, denied their normal distribution because their distributor will not touch this side of the subject (read: this is freedom of the press). I have asked that they send you one of the first copies. In that forest and at that cost it is not possible to include the more than 300 pages of official documents I have for it.

Know a history-minded foundation? I cannot afford another avoidable private printing. These things should be published and public.

When you finally say, "That really is one of the things I should have taken time for", give me a call. If I've moved my new number will be 474-8186.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
