Dear Harold Weisberg:

Thanks for your letter. In view of your impending TV program in Cincinnati and of Thompson's book I thought you might want to see a study I did in consequence of Thompson's book that I passed on to Garrison. He might want to use it, but you should have it available too. I refrained from sending it to Thompson because it seemed advisable to have it come as ammunition for those best placed to use it.

I realize that you or others may already know what I found out, but Garrison's office at least did not.

I wish I could see you when you are in Ohio, but I am not able to get about much, so a trip to Cincinnati seems unlikely. You might phone me if you see fit when you are nearby--or visit if convenient.

Sincerely,

Griscom Morgan

*And a happy new year
to you and your wife*
