Dear Brian,

You'll be welcome any time I'm here and can copy any of the records that may interest you.

And, hopefully, by then I'll have taken time to change this ribbon! Which was not fresh when I bought it, that being the modern fate of typewriter ribbons.

With regard to the books, if anyone asks you bought them at the Hood College book store. The few you saw are my entire stock and I saved them for people who have a genuine interest in the subject and who are not nutty in what they make up and believe that other nuts made up.

I was so glad to see your father again!

Whenever I was in the Bay area I always spent a night with him. Aside from being a nice guy he has principles and they are the same as mine.

I used to enjoy it when he had a cold or laryngitis. I'd then do most his show (never any of the commercials, for which he saved what voice he had) even though we then did not have central heat. I had not finished building our home and the phone was at the base of the basement steps. On which I sat to do the show.

When he comes up again, please bring him over again.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold

Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings I'm at dialysis from 6 until noon. Phoning is a good idea because we may have other guests that day or medical or other appointments.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Weisberg:

My wife and I wanted to thank you for your hospitality and good company in early October when we visited you with my father, Harv.

I've always wanted to meet you both and I enjoyed our conversation at Dutch's Daughter restaurant. Thanks again for the gift of your books --- I look forward to reading them soon.

When we are next in Frederick, we would love to visit you again and maybe do some research in your archives. We will of course phone you before coming.

Have a great Thanksgiving and call us if you ever need anything from Washington.
