Dear Mel,

I have to be away for a few days.

I can't say my phone is private, I have reason to believe it isn't, but I almost never let that inhibit me. Nor do others.

But if you have concern, one of two things is the best immediate procedure, prior to your being able to get here, probably an hour's trip.

Write everything out in full detail, sending me a copy and putting one or more away safely;

Talk the whole thing into a cassette and send that. Registered is some protection.

Sincerely,

13 Feb 1975

Dear Harold;

I am enclosing a check to you for White-wash IV. I wanted to get out to see you last summer. I get quite busy with wedding photography on the weekends and I spent from the middle of June till the end of Sept with some construction work as well as painting my house at every spare moment I could find. It was slow work and I needed two to three coats of stain to cover what was very weathered wood. The first coat would soak in without leaving more than a trace that it had ever been there. I wound up letting alot of my vegetables go to ruin, practically.

I want to come to see you on a nice day when I can take the family and drive out into the country. I have been going through all my sources and have been recording things on a central file, hence, I've still been busy.

I met an old friend who was involved in a certain investigation quite a few years ago about which he had never previously told me. We got to talking about James Rays latest appeal--whose claims were previously supported in Frame-Up--and the subject got on to the JFK assassination. I was blessed--or cursed--with some very startling and specific revelations which scared the hell out of me. If you can assure me that your phone is not bugged or anything like that, let me know when you send the book; and I'll call you. If not, we beeter wait till we can get together personally. I've been too scared to tell anybody, quite honestly. If there is any credence to this, you deserve to be the only person I will tell.

Regards,

Mel Morganstein
