2d Slaying Shakes

Par iln/20

James "Crazy Jim" Mahon, from a drinking spree, police a decorated Vietnam veteran said. who drifted into the so-called | The Vipers figured in the "Vipers" motorcycle club here, news earlier this week when shot and killed a fellow Viper police arrested 14-year-old early yesterday, apparently in Debra (Muffin) Mattingly and self-defense, Washington po- two young men in the slaying lice reported.

Mahon, 22, told police he tingly Sr. in Arlington. fired his shotgun into the Mahon and youth counselors chest of Gilbert Willis, 21, at about 2 a.m. as Willis chased that the Mattingly girl was him with a machete in their trash-strewn "crash pad" apartment at 1801 Newton St. knew the Vipers-a loosely or-

The incident occurred after several Vipers returned to the red brick apartment building of her father, Richard S. Mat-told reporters at that time "obsessed" with motorcycles, ganized group of eight to 12 members-and had lived briefly at the Newton Street address.

Mahon, a two-tour Vietnam war veteran who lost his left thumb and suffered perforations of one lung in combat, was charged yesterday with second-degree murder in Willis' death.

He was released on personal bond in the custody of Army Lt. Col. Ross Goddard, who said he was a personal friend of Mahon and had served in the same unit with him in Vietnam, the 173d Airborne

The officer lives at 1301 S. Arlington Ridge Rd., Arling-

See SLAY, A5, Col. 1