Gang Accused of Torture By Ex-Marine They Rejected

By James T. Yenckel Washingtop Fost Staff Writer

A 21-year-old former Marine He was hospitalized at Quan a hearing that he was tortured dent. for five hours last April by unsuccessfully to join.

Donald Crounse that he was each. hung by his wrists from a home of a Pagans member charge in Prince George's tried to show that Zimmerman with 15 people present, he said. Afterwards, he was left Also held were Larry W. initiation rite. They also said

Marine Base, but moved to dr., Lorton.

Chicago after being discharged | The Judge dismissed charges in June.

conporal testified yesterday at tico overnight after the inci-

Judge Crounse ordered that for five hours last April by members of the Pagans motor-three men identified as Pacycle gang, which he had tried gans be held for grand jury he did not have a motorcycle. nsuccessfully to join.

Richard R. Zimmerman told action Sept. 16 on a charge "Colors" were described as a Levi jacket with the gang's Fairfax County Court Judge were released on $10,000 bond name emblazoned on the back.

One of the defendants is rafter, stripped of his clothing and beaten, cut and burned.

The ordeal occurred during the content of the con a drinking party at the Lorton was acquitted of a murder in the care of one of them.

At the time, Zimmerman dr., Falls Church, and William the Pagans even though they Grubbs, 22, of 2200 Mohegan he continued to associate with was stationed at Quantico K. Harris, 46, of 2712 Wiley had beaten him less severely against two other men because of insufficient evidence.

Zimmerman said he had associated with the Pagans for almost a year but was denied

He said he was attacked because his assailants thought

Lawyers for the defendants three months earlier.