London Court Told of Killing

LONDON, Nov. 1 (AP)—A self-styled Hell's Angel stabbed a man to death then wrote a song about it and boasted to his friends about the nighttime slaying, a British court was told today. But, the jury was told, no one believed 18-year-old factory worker William Devanney.

Devanney and another youth, Peter Stimson, 18, have pleaded innocent to the mur-pleaded innocent to the mur-der of Charles Hedges, also 18, last June.

Prosecuting attorney John Matthew claimed that Devan-ney had earlier admitted stabney nad earner admitted stab-bing Hedges in a park and told police he wanted to be hanged. Hell's Angels is a mo-torcycle gang in the United States. There is a similar group in Britain.
